Odds boards in a Las Vegas sportsbook

Sports betting is the activity of predicting sports results and placing a wager on the outcome. Sports bettors place their wagers either legally, through a bookmaker/sportsbook, or illegally through privately run enterprises referred to as "bookies".

The term "book" is a reference to the books used by wage brokers to track wagers, payouts, and debts.

Many legal sportsbooks are found online, operated over the Internet from jurisdictions separate from the clients they serve, usually to get around various gambling laws (such as the Unlawful Internet Gambling Enforcement Act of 2006 in the United States) in select markets, such as Las Vegas, or on gambling cruises through self-serve kiosks.

Israeli Military Leaders Criticize The Government For The Lack Of A Plan For After The War In Gaza

With Israeli troops returning once again to expel Hamas from parts of northern Gaza and fighting further south in Rafah, the Israeli government faces a growing discontent from an important base: its own military leaders.

Current and former high-ranking military officials have begun to argue more openly that, because the government has not implemented a plan for what follows the fight in Gaza, Israeli troops are being forced to fight again in areas of the territory where Hamas fighters have reappeared.

Two Israeli officials, who spoke on condition of anonymity to avoid reprisals from their professional colleagues, said that some generals and members of the war cabinet were especially frustrated with Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu for not developing and announcing a process to build an alternative to Hamas to govern Gaza.

There were no expectations, among officials or experts, that a new government would be formed while the fighting continued. But "cleaning, maintaining and building" is the widely accepted practice for fighting an insurgency. And for a growing number of critics, Israel appears to be stuck in a cleaning mode, increasing the risks for Israeli soldiers and Gaza civilians while high-level talks remain stalled.

The two officials said that the lack of willingness by Netanyahu to participate in a conversation about the final stages of the Gaza campaign - the "day after" of the battle - has facilitated Hamas's reconstitution in places like Jabaliya in northern Gaza. Israel attacked Hamas for the first time there in October and returned this week with another air and ground assault.

Most of the global criticism of Israel for the war has centered on the growing number of civilian deaths. But Eran Lerman, a national security advisor to Israel from 2006 to 2024, said that it also derived in part from "the lack of a coherent vision for the day after".
