The largest guaranteed prize pool in poker history was announced

Thursday --R$40 million for the 2024 World Poker Tour World Championship in Las Vegas.

The tournament will take place Dec. 12-21 at Wynn Las Vegas.

The previous record for a guaranteed prize pool for a live poker tournament wasR$15 million, set last year at the WPT World Championship.

"The WPT World Championship at Wynn Las Vegas is poised to reach new heights and we wanted to match that expectation with a guarantee that no live poker tournament has ever seen before," Adam Pliska, CEO of the World Poker Tour, said in a release announcing the tournament.

Poker has seen a recent surge in interest after the pandemic. This year's World Series of Poker set multiple records, including 10,043 entries into the Main Event, which had a non-guaranteed prize pool ofR$93.3 million. A record 77 events in the World Series of poker had million-dollar prize pools.

The WPT World Championship includes aR$1 million buy-in tournament. Last year's WPT championship event producedR$4.1 million payout for last year's winner, Eliot Hudon of Canada.
