"Além das investigações e relatórios, ainda não está claro para mim o que realmente foi feito pra começar a abordar as necessidades urgentes no Território do Norte", disse Elisabeth Armitage ao tribunal de Darwin na segunda-feira.

A investigação histórica, que começou tvbet saque junho do ano passado e examinou as mortes específicas também foi examinando os padrões de violência doméstica família ou sexual no território. Enquanto o país representa menos da metade dos australianos na Austrália (menos 1%), há sete vezes mais chances das mulheres serem mortas pela força nacional quando comparada com a média local; quase sempre são indígenas vítimas desse tipo...

Isso ocorre porque, além de todos os fatores padrão da violência (como desigualdade e discriminação entre gênero), a pobreza traumatizada está profundamente enraizada no Território do Norte. Segundo Chay Brown: especialista tvbet saque Violência Doméstica - Familiares E Sexualmente Pesada; Problemas como fome – falta água corrente elétrica ou energia potável sem-teto com taxas até 30 vezes maiores que o resto dos EUA têm instabilidade alimentar total na alimentação humana para suprir as necessidades das mulheres nos serviços necessários."

"Na maioria desses lugares, não há estradas seladas nem cobertura de rede telefônica ou transporte público. E ainda assim todas as medidas e tudo o que falamos quando trata-se da violência doméstica presumem pessoas vivendo tvbet saque centros urbanos."

No Território do Norte, a modelagem policial apresentada no inquérito mostrou que as taxas de violência doméstica e familiar devem saltar 73% na próxima década. Isso seria menor tvbet saque relação ao pico dos 117% da última décadas mas ainda é um aumento impressionante o qual muitos especialistas culpam pela falta das causas básicas como os sem-teto ou pobreza num país entre todos mais ricos...
