Javier Milei de Argentina inicia visita a Estados Unidos para reunirse con Elon Musk

Javier Milei, presidente de Argentina, inició una visita a los Estados Unidos en medio de los esfuerzos de su gobierno por obtener inversiones para reformar la economía del país. Durante su estadía, Milei se reunirá con el magnate de la tecnología Elon Musk.

Reunión con Elon Musk

Milei tiene programado reunirse con Elon Musk, CEO de Tesla, empresa de automóviles eléctricos, como parte de su gira por los Estados Unidos. Esta será la tercera visita de Milei a los Estados Unidos en solo cuatro meses desde que asumió el cargo, lo que refleja su compromiso de fortalecer la alianza estratégica entre los dos países.

Colaboración estratégica y libertad de expresión

En un mensaje en las redes sociales, Milei destacó la importancia de la reunión con el comandante general Laura Richardson, jefa del Comando Sur de los Estados Unidos, y su compromiso de promover la "verdadera libertad de expresión" en Argentina. Criticó a los periodistas que, según él, intentan censurarlo y su administración.

Desafíos económicos y sociales

La política de austeridad de Milei ha provocado dificultades económicas y resistencia en Argentina, un país donde la inflación anual es superior al 276%. Recientemente, la policía tuvo que disolver una protesta anti gobiernista en Buenos Aires. A pesar de estos desafíos, Argentina es vital para los intereses de los Estados Unidos, ya que es el mayor inversionista del país y el más influyente en el FMI, acreedor de Argentina por una suma de 42.000 millones de dólares.

Oportunidades de inversión en litio

Argentina alberga vastas reservas de litio, un recurso cada vez más valioso para la industria de los automóviles eléctricos. Esto ha despertado el interés de inversores como Elon Musk, quien ve al litio como "el nuevo petróleo". La administración de Biden ha explorado recientemente oportunidades de inversión en el litio argentino, ya que el país busca reducir la dependencia de China en la cadena de suministro de baterías.
