A economia global conseguiu evitar cair baccarat cassino uma recessão, embora os bancos centrais do mundo tenham elevado as taxas de 9 juros para seus níveis mais altos nos anos a fim tentar controlar inflação rápida.

Mas o FMI, baccarat cassino um novo relatório 9 também alertou que a escalada da violência no Oriente Médio e as perspectivas de uma nova rodada das guerras 9 comerciais decorrentes dos desenvolvimentos políticos nos Estados Unidos permanecem ameaças significativas.

Novas previsões econômicas divulgadas pelo fundo na terça-feira mostraram que 9 a luta global contra os preços crescentes foi amplamente ganha: A produção mundial deve se manter estável baccarat cassino 3,2% este 9 ano e no próximo. Os temores de uma ampla Contração Pós Pandémica foram evitadoS MAS o Fundo alertou Que MUITOES 9 Países ainda Enfrentam Uma Mistura desafiadora De Dívida Alta E Crescimento lento

O relatório foi divulgado como ministros das finanças e 9 governadores de bancos centrais do mundo todo reunidos baccarat cassino Washington para as reuniões anuais da I.MF, o Banco Mundial (BM). 9 A reunião está ocorrendo duas semanas antes duma eleição presidencial nos Estados Unidos que poderia resultar numa grande mudança no 9 sentido ao protecionismo se for eleito Donald J Trump ex-presidente dos EUA ndias Unidas

Trump ameaçou impor tarifas gerais de até 9 50%, provavelmente desencadeando retaliações e guerras comerciais. Economistas acreditam que isso poderia alimentar aumentos nos preços do petróleo ou desacelerar o crescimento da economia americana? possivelmente levando a uma recessão

"O medo de uma presidência Trump vai reverberar nos bastidores", disse Mark Sobel, ex-funcionário do Tesouro que agora é presidente dos EUA no Fórum Oficial das Instituições Monetárias e Financeira. O Sr Sobel afirmou aos formuladores globais provavelmente se perguntariam o que outra Presidência Donald "significaria para um futuro multilateralista", a cooperação internacional com a China e o comércio global entre outros".

Essa incerteza está pairando sobre uma economia global que provou ser notavelmente resiliente durante vários anos de turbulência.

A taxa de inflação global ano-a-ano sobre o exercício está prestes a cair para 3,5% até ao final do próximo ano (de 5,9% este ano). Isso é abaixo da máxima inflação de 9,5 por cento no 2024 e estaria aquém dos níveis médios.

"Embora o declínio global da inflação seja um marco importante, os riscos de queda estão subindo e agora dominam as perspectivas", escreveu Pierre-Olivier Gourinchas.

A força da economia global continua a ser impulsionada pelos Estados Unidos, cujo crescimento está superando o das outras economias avançadas do Grupo dos 7 países.

Inflação já caiu perto de meta de 2 por cento no Federal Reserve nos EUA e conseqüentemente o Fed começou a cortar taxas...

O FMI atualizou sua projeção para a produção nos Estados Unidos este ano, de uma estimativa anterior que foi de 2,6% para 0,8% devido ao aumento dos gastos com o consumidor e salários mais altos. Projeta-se um crescimento econômico lento até 2,9% no 2025.

A produção na área do euro continua lenta este ano com 0,8%, mas o FMI estima que a taxa de crescimento vai aumentar até 2025.

Outros grandes países estão lutando, representando riscos para a economia global. O crescimento na China e Índia está prestes a diminuir este ano ou no próximo. A IMF estima que o produto da China deve cair de 4,9% neste ano para 2,6% em 2024 e a Índia de 7% para 5,6% em 2024.

A economia chinesa cresceu 0,9% em julho até setembro nos três meses anteriores, informou o Escritório Nacional de Estatísticas da China no mês passado.

A China tem sido prejudicada por um colapso no mercado imobiliário, que diminuiu os gastos com construção. Os governos locais estão enfrentando crises orçamentárias e milhões de graduados universitários têm lutado para encontrar trabalho.

O FMI disse que poderia haver implicações negativas para a economia global se o setor imobiliário da China for mais profundo ou durar por muito tempo, isso pode diminuir os sentimentos dos consumidores na China e desacelerar as trocas comerciais globais.

Economistas do fundo permanecem preocupados com o pedágio que as guerras gêmeas entre Rússia e Ucrânia, Israel ou Hamas poderiam assumir a economia mundial. Se essas guerras escalarem para conflitos regionais eles poderão reacender a inflação fazendo os preços dos alimentos aumentarem tanto quanto fizeram quando Moscou invadiu Kiev no 2022.

As repercussões das políticas industriais protecionistas e as crescentes tensões comerciais também são um risco, o que a IMF disse poder prejudicar seu crescimento.

"Os desvios para políticas comerciais e industriais indesejáveis podem reduzir significativamente a produção e a relação à nossa previsão de linha base", disse Gourinchas.

"Embora as medidas da política industrial possam às vezes aumentar o investimento, especialmente quando se depende dos subsídios financiados pela dívida - elas muitas vezes levam ao retaliamento sem entregar melhorias sustentadas no padrão de vida."
