Short-Deck Poker: How to Play 6+ Hold'em (Official Rules)
What is Short Deck Poker?

Short-deck poker (also known as six-plus hold'em) is a new variation of traditional Texas hold'em that mostly follows the same rules albeit with a significant difference.

Short-deck poker uses a smaller 36-card deck rather than the full 52-card deck.

Most first heard of short-deck poker after it was introduced among the mix in the high-stakes cash games in Macau.

Here we go over the poker rules for Short Deck Poker.

How to Play Poker for Beginners Check out the rules and basic strategy to all the popular poker formats Click Here

Short-Deck Poker Rules

Before we discover how to play short-deck poker, let's see how to get to the 36-card deck needed to play a game of 6+ hold'em.

The 36-card deck in use in poker short deck is created by removing the 2xs, 3xs, 4xs, and 5xs from the deck (16 cards).

That leaves the 6xs up through the Kxs as well as the Axs.

What about the Aces?

As in regular hold'em, in short-deck poker the aces still count as high or low when making straights.

The lowest possible straight in a game of short-deck poker is Ax9x8x7x6x (think of the ace as essentially replacing the missing 5x).

Poker short-deck is played similarly to regular hold'em.

Each player receive two hole cards and use them in combination with five community cards to create the best possible hand.

A game of short-deck poker features four streets of betting:

Pre-flop Flop Turn River

However, there are some differences in the poker short-deck poker that you should know about before playing.

Short-Deck Poker Hand Rankings

Short-deck poker can be played according to the exact same rules as regular Texas Hold'em.

The betting can be fixed-limit or no-limit (although most often the game is played no-limit), and the same hand rankings can be used as follows:

Hand Ranking	Hand Name	Poker Hand	Lowest High card
One pair	KK5x8xQx	Two pair	KK66Qx
Three-of-a-kind	KKK6Qx	Straight	A6789
Flush	KJ1069x	Full house	KKK66
Four-of-a-kind	KKKK6x	Straight flush	A6789
Highest Royal flush	10JQKA

Alternative Short-Deck Hand Rankings

Short-deck poker is played often employing a different hand ranking system. Here are the alternate hand rankings for short-deck poker (note the differences in bold):

Hand Ranking	Hand Name	Poker Hand	Lowest High card
One pair	KK5x8xQx	Two pair	KK66Qx
Straight	A6789	Three of a kind	KKK6Qx
Full house	KKK66	Flush	KJ1069x
Four of a kind	KKKK6x	Straight flush	A6789
Highest Royal flush	10JQKA

As you can see, following these alternate poker short deck hand rankings a three-of-a-kind beats a straight (instead of vice-versa), and a flush beats a full house (instead of vice-versa).

Why a Different Hand Rankings?

These changes were introduced the because the removal of cards from the standard deck alter the probabilities of making certain hands.

For example, with only nine suited cards (instead of 13), a flush is harder to make in shord-deck poker than in regular hold'em.

Six-Plus Hold'em Variation — The Deal (Fifth Street)

One other popular variation often introduced in six-plus hold'em has to do with the way the river is dealt.

The game can be played according to the same procedure followed in regular hold'em, with the community cards coming in the same way — flop (three cards), turn (one card), and river (one card) — and betting rounds after each street.

More often, though, instead of a river card being dealt to complete a five-card board, players are each dealt a third hole card instead.

Players then make their five-card poker hands by using exactly two of their three hole cards and three of the four community cards.

The building of hands resembles the procedure followed in Omaha poker where players must use two of their four hole cards plus three board cards to make a five-card poker hand.

Short-Deck Poker Basic Strategy

As you might imagine, the removal of low cards and use of the 36-card deck makes it more likely to make higher value hands, a change that tends to introduce more action.

You should adjust your thinking about relative hand values from what they are used to in regular hold'em.

The smaller deck makes it easier to make two-pair hands, which means a hand like top pair-top kicker is no longer as strong in six-plus hold'em as it is in regular hold'em.

Straights and full houses are also easier to make in six-plus hold'em than in the regular version of the game (a reason for the alternate hand rankings).

The odds of hitting certain draws change, too, in short-deck poker.

Just to highlight one example, filling an open-ended straight draw becomes more likely in poker short-deck.

While you're still looking for the same eight outs there are fewer total cards in the deck, thus increasing the percentage you'll make your straight.

The smaller deck also affects the likelihood of being dealt certain hands. []You're more than twice as likely to get pocket aces[/B] in short-deck poker than you are in regular hold'em!

Finally, players being dealt a third hole card instead of there being a fifth community card obviously affects hand values as well, making it even more likely that players improve their hands — yet another factor that has to be taken into account when calculating odds and considering your final-round betting strategy.

Conclusion

Short-deck poker / 6+ hold'em introduces several exciting twists to traditional Texas hold'em, creating an action-filled alternative that many players are finding especially enjoyable to play.

The changes from regular hold'em aren't terribly complicated, making it easy to new players to learn and play right away.

China pide a Estados Unidos que dejen de inventar y difundir información falsa

El portavoz del Ministerio de Relaciones Exteriores chino, Lin Jian, pidió este lunes a los Estados Unidos que dejen de inventar y difundir información falsa sobre otros países.

Lin hizo estas declaraciones cuando se le preguntó por un informe de Reuters que afirma que los militares de EE.UU. lanzaron una campaña de difamación contra China en el apogeo de la pandemia de COVID-19.

Una investigación de Reuters descubrió que la campaña "tenía como objetivo sembrar dudas sobre la seguridad y la eficacia de las vacunas y otras ayudas vitales proporcionadas por China".

"No hemos hecho un buen trabajo compartiendo vacunas con socios", dijo a Reuters un alto funcionario militar de EE.UU. que estuvo directamente involucrado en la campaña, según el informe. "Así que lo que nos quedó fue echar sombras sobre China."

China se opone firmemente a difundir información falsa

Lin dijo que esto demostró una vez más que difundir información falsa a través de la manipulación de las redes sociales, envenenamiento del ambiente de la opinión pública y mancha de imágenes de otros países son prácticas habituales de EE.UU. "La China se opone firmemente a esto", dijo.

Las palabras del alto funcionario militar de EE.UU. expusieron la verdad, así como las intenciones de los Estados Unidos en lanzar campañas de desinformación contra otros países, dijo Lin.

"Para simplificar, si los Estados Unidos quieren contener y suprimir un país, ignorarán la verdad y coordinarán recursos para difamar y calumniar a ese país", dijo Lin.

Él notó que esta táctica no se usó solo contra las vacunas de China. Campañas de desinformación también se han lanzado en varias otras áreas, incluyendo intentos de desacreditar la popular Iniciativa Cinturón y Ruta y difundir rumores sobre el llamado exceso de capacidad en la industria de vehículos de nueva energía de China, que está de hecho experimentando un crecimiento en la oferta y la demanda.

Lin dijo que esta aproximación no refleja las poderosas capacidades de los Estados Unidos; en cambio, simplemente expone la hegemonía y la hipocresía de EE.UU.

"La comunidad internacional debe mantener los ojos abiertos y obtener una comprensión clara de tales acciones emprendidas por los Estados Unidos", dijo.

China espera que los EUA corrijan su mentalidad actual y asuman sus debidas responsabilidades como una gran potencia, dijo Lin.
