Táticas de Mestre

History [edit]

Poker has been appearing on television somewhat regularly since the late-1970s. In the United States, CBS started airing the final table of the World Series of Poker (WSOP) Main Event as an annual one-hour show around this time and later by ESPN, which were casino-produced shows produced under a time-buy arrangement for sports omnibus programming such as the CBS Sports Spectacular. For many years, the coverage was less than robust because viewers at home could not see what cards the players had or follow their progress visually through graphics. Instead, the coverage essentially involved the commentators guessing what cards the players had in a documentary style production.

In 1997, the hole cam, which allows audiences to see the hidden cards that players held in their hands, was introduced in Europe. The hole cam was patented by WSOP bracelet winner Henry Orenstein and first used in the Late Night Poker television series. It was used again in the inaugural Poker Million tournament in 2000 which boasted the attraction of the first £1,000,000 poker game on live television. By 1996, however, the ESPN one-hour highlight show only included hands that were shown down, so that the commentators, including Gabe Kaplan, could comment, in post-production, on the hands while they were being played out. The commentators referred to this as "taking a peek at the cards", and provided the first contemporary announcing on hands during the play in poker history. By 2001, however, Late Night Poker had been cancelled in the UK and televised poker could no longer be found in Europe. In the US, the 1999, 2000, and 2001 World Series of Poker events were only broadcast in one-hour documentaries on the Discovery Networks.

In 1999, documentary filmmaker Steven Lipscomb produced and directed a documentary on the WSOP for the Discovery Channel. It was the first U.S. poker production funded entirely by a television network rather than the casino. When the 1999 WSOP aired, it doubled its audience over the hour time slot. Seeing the audience reaction, Lipscomb believed there was an untapped market and began pitching poker series ideas to cable and network television. Because poker had been on the air for over twenty years, with little viewer interest, broadcasters were unwilling to commit resources to put a series on the air.

In October 2001, Lipscomb wrote a business plan. Along with poker player Mike Sexton and poker business woman Linda Johnson, Lipscomb approached casino mogul and avid poker player, Lyle Berman, whose company Lakes Entertainment agreed to fund the World Poker Tour (WPT)—the first organized and televised tour of poker tournaments in the world.

El Paso Gunfight Features

First and foremost, you'll find that there's a feature called Stance that allows you to set up your reel preference. There's a setup of 4-3-3-3-2 which is less volatile with the Deputy Badge on the first reel and the Marshal Badge on the last.

Alternatively, you can use the setup of 2-3-3-3-4 which is more volatile with the Marshal Badge on the first reel and the Deputy Badge on the last reel.

Stoudenmire

xNudge Wilds

On the reels, a 3-row high wild symbol exists on reels 2 to 4 and always nudges to be visible. Each step with this wild adds a multiplier of x1.

Deputy and

Marshal Raid

Landing the Deputy Badge converts all low-value symbols to one random low symbol with the badge acting as the low-value symbol.

If you land the Marshal Badge, then this converts all high-value symbols to one specific one with the badge acting as the same high symbol.

Landing both of these symbols acts the same as above with the open area opening up to 4-3-3-3-4 and two badges acting as wilds.

Gunfight Spins

If you

land 3 skull scatters on the middle reels, you'll trigger 8 spins. You'll decide the stance such as high volatility or extreme volatility.

During this mode, you'll find that the 3 scatters jump across the screen. Gunfight Spins can also be upgraded to other free spins. If you land a Stoudenmire Wild, then the multiplier will double for each jumping wild.

Deputy or Marshall Gunfight Spins

Landing 3 scatters along with 1 of the badges triggers 9 spins. If you land one of the badges during Gunfight Spins, you'll upgrade to this spin.

You again chose your volatility and the jumping wilds move to new positions for each spin. The badge rules still apply for this section along with the Stoudenmire Wild.

Drunken Gundfiguth&R Spins

Again, if you land 3 scatters along with both badges, you'll gain 10 spins. Additionally, you can trigger this through Gunfight Spins if you land both of the badges at the same time.

The area opens up to 4-3-3-3-4 and 3 scatters and the 2 badges become jumping wilds. The Stoudenmire Wild applies but the jumping wild will be removed and lock the Stoudenmire wilds for the rest of the feature.

4 Dead in 5 Seconds

Landing all 5 characters, Stoudenmire Wild and the four high-value symbols triggers the respin. The wild will expand to cover the 3 middle reels and respin like this throughout the respin.
