Bear vs Bull Market: Key Differences for Investors to Know | TIME Stamped

Long ago, goods and services were exchanged for other goods and services. Investors who sold bear skins they did not yet own were called bears because they expected a price decline. Bull traders were considered the opposite of bears. They bought assets with the expectation that prices would rise.

Where did the terms bull market and bear market originate?

In the jargon of stock-market traders, a bull is someone who buys securities or commodities in the expectation of a price rise, or someone whose actions make such a price rise happen. A bear is the opposite someone who sells securities or commodities in expectation of a price decline.
