A case card in poker is the last card of a certain rank remaining in the deck. This means that the other three cards of that ranking have either been dealt or exposed at some point earlier in the hand. In the theoretical case of a case card, the player who is dealt it has a significant advantage. In the real world, however, the player who is dealt the case card is often at a disadvantage because they are often in a position where they are forced to bet or raise. This is because the other players in the hand are often in a position where they can see the case card and make a decision based on that information. A common example is having a dominated hand and drawing to a case card. another player folded one of our outs earlier on in the hand. We are technically drawing to the case ace but have no way of knowing there aren't still two aces in this deck taken by the other player. example, we hold three of a kind aces in Hold'em but are currently losing to a full house. If we hit the last remaining ace in the deck to make quads this is known as a case card. we are extremely unlikely to hit. As poker players we should always be aware of when it is worth drawing and when it is not. Expertos de la ONU acusan a las partes beligerantes de Sudán de utilizar el hambre como arma de guerra

Expertos en derechos humanos que trabajan para las Naciones Unidas han acusado a las partes beligerantes en Sudán de utilizar el hambre como arma de guerra, ante las crecientes advertencias de una inminente hambruna en el país africano.

La lucha por el poder en Sudán

Sudán se sumió en el caos en abril del año pasado cuando las tensiones simultáneas entre las fuerzas armadas de Sudán (SAF) y un temido grupo paramilitar, las Fuerzas de Apoyo Rápido (RSF), estallaron en enfrentamientos abiertos en la capital, Jartum, y en otras partes del país.

Evento	Descripción
Conflicto en Sudán	Comenzó en abril de 2024, con enfrentamientos entre las fuerzas armadas de Sudán (SAF) y el grupo paramilitar Rapid Support Forces (RSF).
Víctimas	Más de 14.000 personas muertas y 33.000 heridas o lesionadas, según la ONU.
Desplazados	Más de 11 millones de personas desplazadas, según organizaciones de derechos humanos.

En los 14 meses de conflicto, más de 14.000 personas han muerto y 33.000 han resultado heridas o lesionadas, según la ONU, aunque los activistas de derechos humanos afirman que el saldo podría ser mucho mayor.

Han habido informes generalizados de violencia sexual y otras atrocidades que, según los grupos de derechos humanos, equivalen a crímenes de guerra y crímenes contra la humanidad. El conflicto ha creado la mayor crisis de desplazamiento del mundo, con más de 11 millones de personas obligadas a huir de sus hogares.

El uso de la hambruna como arma de guerra

"Tanto las FAS como las RSF están utilizando la comida como arma y están dejando morir de hambre a los civiles", afirmaron los expertos. "La magnitud del hambre y el desplazamiento que vemos en Sudán hoy en día es sin precedentes y nunca se había visto antes".

Ni el ejército ni las RSF devolvieron las llamadas solicitando comentarios.

Los expertos advirtieron que la hambruna es inminente, ya que la ayuda humanitaria ha sido bloqueada y la temporada de cosecha se ha visto interrumpida por la guerra. Afirmaron que más de 25 millones de civiles en Sudán y los que huyeron del país necesitan asistencia humanitaria urgente.

Un informe del think tank Clingendael Institute afirmó el mes pasado que aproximadamente 2,5 millones de personas en Sudán podrían morir de hambre para finales de septiembre, con alrededor del 15% de la población en las regiones de Darfur y Kordofan probablemente siendo las más afectadas.

Los expertos locales han advertido que los esfuerzos de respuesta a la crisis de hambre en Sudán se han visto obstaculizados por la violencia sin precedentes y los ataques dirigidos a la sociedad civil y a los res
