John Lundstram's strike sparked bedlam at Ibrox as Rangers progressed 3-2 on aggregate Rangers' dream season in Europe will culminate in a Europa League final against Eintracht Frankfurt after they swept aside RB Leipzig on another emotionally charged and memorable night at Ibrox.

Trailing 1-0 from the first leg, Rangers turned the semi-final on its head within 25 minutes through goals from James Tavernier and Glen Kamara.

Christopher Nkunku's 32nd goal of the season levelled the tie again before John Lundstram shook Ibrox with 10 minutes left after sweeping home.

Leipzig, despite their talented squad, could find no answer in the closing stages amid a cauldron of noise as a depleted Rangers side completed their remarkable run from the play-off round to the final.

Giovanni van Bronckhorst's men will meet Eintracht Frankfurt in Seville on 18 May with a tantalising chance to win the club's first European trophy for 50 years and claim a place in next season's Champions League group stage.

When the full-time whistle arrived, the Rangers players looked on in utter disbelief at their incredible achievement, but it was a performance worthy of winning any European tie.

Using the emotion of Ibrox, as they have throughout the campaign, just days after the passing of club icon and kitman of 30 years Jimmy Bell, they stormed out the blocks and into a 2-0 lead despite the absence of key strikers Alfredo Morelos and Kemar Roofe.

Firstly, Kamara held up a long ball he had no right to retain, and offloaded to Ryan Kent who picked out Tavernier at the back post for his seventh goal of the Europa League campaign.

The fans behind the goal cascaded towards the pitch in sheer elation, but it got even better six minutes later when Kamara caressed a shot with his weaker foot into the back of the net.

Leipzig, a club with a turnover about six times that of Rangers, were completely rattled and should have fallen three goals down before the break as Joe Aribo sclafted a volley in the air from five yards.

That came so close to capping a perfectly executed first-half display from Rangers, and after the break they showed the guts and determination that has characterised their run to the final. After seeing Aribo and Ryan Jack limp off injured, they were picked apart by Angelino's delicious cross from the left and Nkunku's gorgeous first-time finish and the momentum seemed to have swung away from Van Bronckhorst's side.

But despite the Germans cranking up the pressure and legs tiring, Rangers somehow got themselves up the pitch.

The lively Kent ghosted past his man and hung a cross into the box which almost dropped in, and Lundstram was lurking to drill home the clearance for the winning goal to send Ibrox rocking from its foundations.

Fashion Sakala should have put it to bed in stoppage time when clean through, but it did not matter as Rangers saw out the final minutes in relative comfort having knocked the stuffing from Leipzig, who managed only two shots on target all night.

Man of the match - John Lundstram

John Lundstram scored the decisive goal, but he was relentless across the two legs whether at centre-back or in midfield. A heroic performance

What did we learn?

This was an astounding performance from Rangers. Away from home they parked the bus and made sure they came back to Ibrox with a chance, and they put in the perfect display in front of their own fans to finish the job.

This was not a backs-against-the-wall effort, they swarmed Leipzig and completely outplayed them for the first hour and, even with key players missing and forced off, they somehow got the job done.

This is a team that has gone to extra time against Celtic and Braga in the last month, played Motherwell with 10 men for over an hour, and gone toe-to-toe with Leipzig all with a squad stretched to its limit.

But somehow they keep coming up with the answers in Europe. It has been a superhuman effort.

You could have picked any player in a blue shirt for man of the match, but Lundstram's performance in defence and midfield was totemic and he popped up with the winning goal.

Kamara - not known for his attacking threat - also stepped up massively to create and score the first two goals, while Kent seems to just come alive on European nights.

They will not fear Frankfurt in the final having already taken down Borussia Dortmund and now Leipzig, and Van Bronckhorst has shown he can adapt the team's game plan for all different types of opponents.

What a thrill it has been for them, and now there is one final job.

What they said

Rangers captain James Tavernier on BT Sport: "We wanted to do it for Jimmy. He will be looking down proud of us. It's unbelievable. Towards the end Lunny [John Lundstram] came up with the goods. A European final, it's what you dream of.

"We'll go there [Seville] full of confidence. Frankfurt got there for a reason, but it's one game and we'll fully back ourselves. We're in this to win it. We want to make all the fans proud."

What the stats say

RB Leipzig are only the fifth side in the Europa League since 2009-10 to be eliminated in the semi-finals despite winning the first leg after Benfica in 2010-11, Sporting Lisbon in 2011-12, Fenerbahce in 2012-13 and Villarreal in 2024-16.

Giovanni van Bronckhorst has become the first Dutch manager to reach the final of the Uefa Cup/Europa League in charge of a non-Dutch side since Dick Advocaat in 2008, whose Zenit St Petersburg side faced Rangers in that year's final, winning 2-0.

RB Leipzig have now lost on each of their previous two visits to face Scottish sides in European club competition (exc. qualifiers); it is the first time the German side have lost on each of their first two such visits to sides from a specific nation.

James Tavernier has now scored seven goals in the Europa League this season; the outright most by a Rangers player in a single season in European club competition. Indeed, he is also the third Englishman to score at least 10 goals in the Europa League (excluding qualifiers), with only Jermain Defoe and Harry Kane scoring more (both 11).

John Lundstram scored his second Europa League goal of the season in 13 appearances, with both coming against German opposition (also against Borussia Dortmund). In the Scottish Premiership this season, he has only scored once in 26 games.

Football club

Futebol Clube do Porto, MHIH, OM [2] (Portuguese pronunciation: [futl klu ðu potu]), commonly known as FC Porto or simply Porto, is a Portuguese professional sports club based in Porto. It is best known for the professional football team playing in the Primeira Liga, the top flight of Portuguese football.

Founded on 28 September 1893,[a] Porto is one of the "Big Three" (Portuguese: Os Três Grandes) teams in Portugal – together with Lisbon-based rivals Benfica and Sporting CP, that have appeared in every season of the Primeira Liga since its establishment in 1934. They are nicknamed dragões (Dragons), for the mythical creature atop the club's crest, and Azuis e brancos (Blue-and-whites), for the shirt colours. Those colours are in stripes with blue shorts. The club supporters are called portistas. Since 2003, Porto have played their home matches at the Estádio do Dragão, which replaced the previous 51-year-old ground, the Estádio das Antas. Porto are the second most decorated team in Portuguese football, with 84 major trophies.[6] Domestically, these comprise 30 Portuguese league titles (five of which won consecutively between 1994–95 and 1998–99, a Portuguese football record), 19 Taça de Portugal, 4 Campeonato de Portugal, 1 Taça da Liga and a record 23 Supertaça Cândido de Oliveira. Porto is one of two teams to have won the league title without defeats, in the 2010–11 and 2012–13 seasons.[7] In the former, Porto achieved the largest-ever difference of points between champion and runner-up in a three-points-per-win system (21 points), on their way to a second quadruple. In international competitions, Porto is the most decorated Portuguese team, with seven trophies. They won the European Cup/UEFA Champions League in 1987 and 2004, the UEFA Cup/Europa League in 2003 and 2011, the UEFA Super Cup in 1987, and the Intercontinental Cup in 1987 and 2004. In addition, they were runners-up in the 1983–84 European Cup Winners' Cup, plus the 2003, 2004 and 2011 editions of the UEFA Super Cup. Porto is the only Portuguese club to have won the UEFA Cup/Europa League, the UEFA Super Cup, the Intercontinental Cup, and to have achieved a continental treble of domestic league, domestic cup and European titles (2002–03 and 2010–11). Porto have the third-most appearances in the UEFA Champions League group stage (23), behind Barcelona and Real Madrid (24). In UEFA, Porto ranks 9th in the all-time club ranking and also ranked 20th in the club coefficient rankings at the end of the 2024–23 season.[8] nus são uma combinação perfeita para aqueles que sempre procuram opções de bônus no tsbook.
