Ferran Torres y España, listos para el desafío de la Eurocopa

Ferran Torres está sentado en el terreno de juego del pequeño SV Aasen 1928, riendo sobre cómo Lamine Yamal debería ser ilegal, jugando dardos con Phil Foden y siendo David Villa cuando se le pregunta sobre el hombre que se para frente a él y sus compañeros de España. "Si el último tuvo que entrar en la portería después de botar en el poste, el siguiente necesitará tres giros de tuerca para superar a 'Mama'," dice. "Tienes que visualizarlo, creerlo. Necesitas una oportunidad clara también; estábamos viéndolo anoche y es increíble."

Mama es Giorgi Mamardashvili, el portero de Georgia de 1,98 m que ha atajado más que nadie. El gol de Torres, doblado más allá de Thomas Strakosha de Albania, completó una fase de grupos perfecta para la selección , nueve puntos de nueve y sin goles recibidos, aunque también fue el único que han marcado ellos mismos desde el medio tiempo en su partido inaugural, y los márgenes se están volviendo más finas. "Hemos sido el mejor equipo en la fase de grupos, y eso nos da confianza," dice. "Pero las cosas cambian ahora. Les dimos una paliza a Italia? En la semifinal la última vez les dimos una paliza y aún así nos fuimos a casa, una espina clavada en nuestro costado todavía. Puedes jugar bien o mal, pero ahora tienes que ganar." España ha jugado muy bien. Mejor que nadie y mejor de lo que nadie esperaba también. Cualquiera fuera del Öschberghof, al menos: el equipo, paseando hacia el campo de entrenamiento cada mañana, tenía más fe que todos los demás. "Sin duda," dice Torres, pausando. "Sin duda," dice de nuevo, y hay otra pausa. Entonces una sonrisa. "Sin duda," agrega. Podría ser su lema. La duda, la crítica, ¿podrían ser realmente útiles, algo para luchar? Algo contra lo que demostrar que está en lo cierto? Hay una respiración profunda. "Depende... depende..." Torres comienza.
