This article discusses the concept of the "1 and more than 1.5 goals" bet in sports betting. This type of bet combines two possible outcomes: a team's victory and a match with at least two goals scored. The article explains the parameters of this bet and provides examples of when it could be useful. It also discusses the potential consequences of placing this type of bet, such as increased chances of winning but also a higher risk of loss. The article also provides recommendations for success, such as not focusing solely on the winning team and conducting thorough research. Finally, the article concludes by emphasizing the importance of using this betting strategy with caution and being aware of the potential risks involved.
