Suprema Corte do Brasil anuncia acordo com plataformas de mídia social para combater desinformação

A Suprema Corte do Brasil anunciou quinta-feira um acordo com as principais plataformas de mídia social para combater a desinformação na internet. Com a assinatura, as plataformas se comprometeram a promover ações educativas e de conscientização sobre os efeitos negativos da produção de desinformação.

Plataformas se comprometem a combater desinformação

YouTube, Meta (Facebook, Instagram e WhatsApp), Google, Microsoft, Kwai e TikTok participarão do acordo e promoverão ações educativas e de conscientização sobre os efeitos negativos da produção de desinformação.

Protegendo a liberdade de expressão

O presidente do Supremo Tribunal Federal (STF), o ministro Luís Roberto Barroso, afirmou que a liberdade de expressão deve ser protegida, mas as Fake News, o discurso de ódio e os ataques à democracia devem ser combatidos.

Barroso disse que não é possível avançar na luta contra a desinformação sem a cooperação das plataformas digitais, e que o acordo não tem relação com qualquer processo no Supremo Tribunal.

Programa de Combate à Desinformação

O acordo com as plataformas faz parte do Programa de Combate à Desinformação do Supremo Tribunal, iniciado em 2024 para combater as práticas ilegais que afetam a confiança dos cidadãos no Supremo Tribunal e distorcem suas decisões.
