O documento histórico que você me pediu para escrever sobre é a Resposta Histórica do Vasco, que completed 100 years old on April 7, 2024. It was written in response to a letter sent by the President of the Brazilian Football Confederation, Arnaldo Guinle, to the Vasco da Gama Sports Club, which had been rejected by the club.

The Resposta Histórica was written by the club's president, José Augusto Prestes, and was dated April 17, 1924. In it, he responded to Guinle's letter and discussed the formation of the Associação Metropolitana de Esportes Athleticos (AMEA), which was created to organize sports events in Rio de Janeiro.

Prestes argued that the AMEA's statutes were not only illegal but also contravened the principles of sportsmanship and fair play. He also accused the AMEA of having a prejudiced attitude towards the Vasco da Gama club and its players, who were mostly black and poor.

The Resposta Histórica is considered a landmark document in Brazilian sports history and has been widely studied and discussed by historians and researchers. It highlights the struggles faced by black and poor Brazilians in accessing sports and recreational activities, as well as the discrimination they faced in society at the time.

In conclusion, the Resposta Histórica do Vasco is an important historical document that shed light on the struggles faced by marginalized communities in Brazil during the early 20th century and highlights the importance of fighting against discrimination and prejudice in all its forms.
