In 1961, cassinos, nightclubs. and bars were finally prohibited due to official decree. One can observe that although with presumed public pressure imposed by gambling dens, newspapers of the time give numerous examples Of how that presumption was public opinion regarding judicial facts of the time very important in that people no longer connected these cassinos to the people neither of illegal bets nor of financially compensated corruption networks. It rather amazes us upon further examining press publications from back in a particular magazine in comparison to the modern day revelations about judicial details involved in crimes, of legal bets and loan Shark public gambling where much has changed, if it ain't vegas style, it ain't fun or else a new era became news of organized corruption and people don't have time doing foolery which was banned by order from the Vargas Era, banning books and music deemed immoral not so odd since Vargas dictated everything but newspapers can today address what in reality may one day hopefully become new networks offering.
