About Restaurant Games

What could be more interactive, challenging, yet fun than building your culinary empire right in the comfort of your living room? The magic words for this immersive experience are "Restaurant Games". Far from being mere time-passing activities, these games are designed to test your strategy, time management, and creativity.

Restaurant games have been around since the early years of online gaming, emerging as a niche category of simulation games. It's hard to pinpoint who exactly invented the category, but it's believed to have gained popularity in the late 1990s and early 2000s. Lovers of cooking and management were given a platform to practice their passion and strategize their own food establishments, all in a virtual environment. From children developing their operational skills to adults looking for a fun and relaxing activity, games in this category appeal to a wide audience.

The idea of games may seem simple, but it's anything but. It's about combining ingredients, following recipes, managing staff, expanding your kitchen, and strategizing to serve the maximum number of customers in a given time. Don't worry, there are no real firefights to put out or real rats to scare away; it's all fun and sweet chaos!

What types of restaurant games are there?

Restaurant games may all revolve around the theme of food and hospitality, but there's an incredible variety within this category. Some of the most popular sub-genres include:

Middle-earth games allow you to build restaurants in a fantasy setting.

David DePape condenado a 30 años de prisión por agredir al esposo de Nancy Pelosi

David DePape, un teórico de la conspiración de extrema derecha que ingresó a la casa de Nancy Pelosi en el norte de California en 2024 y golpeó a su esposo con un martillo, fue condenado a 30 años de prisión.

Un jurado federal lo declaró culpable de intento de secuestro de un funcionario federal y agresión a un miembro inmediato de la familia de un funcionario federal en noviembre de 2024, menos de un año y medio después del ataque en la casa de la ex portavoz de la Cámara de Representantes en San Francisco.

DePape ingresó por la puerta trasera en las primeras horas del 28 de octubre de 2024 con la intención de secuestrar a Nancy Pelosi, interrogarlo y publicar un video en línea. En cambio, encontró a Paul Pelosi, quien tenía 82 años en ese momento y despertó a DePape en su dormitorio con un martillo y esposas, preguntando: "¿Dónde está Nancy? ¿Dónde está Nancy?" Paul Pelosi pudo llamar al 911, y los oficiales de policía llegaron justo antes de que DePape golpeará la cabeza de Pelosi varias veces con un martillo, dejándolo inconsciente. Pelosi requirió cirugía para una fractura de cráneo, así como lesiones en su brazo y manos después del ataque, que quedó capturado en el video de la cámara corporal de la policía.

El ataque, que tuvo lugar días antes de las elecciones intermedias de 2024, avivó los temores sobre la violencia política en los EE. UU.

DePape tenía un historial de promover teorías de conspiración en línea y había compartido información errónea sobre el covid y el asalto al Capitolio del 6 de enero, así como afirmaciones falsas de que las elecciones de 2024 habían sido robadas de Donald Trump. Había estado sin hogar y experimentando abuso de drogas y enfermedad mental en los años previos al ataque, le dijo a los medios locales su ex novia.

Durante el juicio, testificó sobre sus creencias políticas marginales y cómo llegó a apoyar las teorías de conspiración falsas de que una camarilla de pedófilos controlaba el gobierno de los EE. UU.

Admitió el ataque, pero dijo que había querido hablar con Nancy Pelosi y que Paul Pelosi "nunca fue mi objetivo y lo siento que resultó herido". Su abogado dijo que DePape había apuntado a Nancy Pelosi porque creía "con todo su cuerpo" que estaba tomando medidas para detener la corrupción y el abuso de niños.

Paul Pelosi el año pasado testificó que aún no se había recuperado por completo del "ataque traumático", que requirió placas y tornillos permanentes en la cabeza.
