What was expected would be a simple coronation of Salt Lake City, when the Olympic host of the winter 2034 transformed itself into a complicated Olympic political drama on Thursday (local time), while the IOC pressured Utah authorities to end an FBI inquiry into suspected coverage.

In a decision made in Paris at the start of the 2030 Olympic Games – with conditions – to France for a regional project divided between resorts in the Alps and Nice. This project needs the official approval of the national government that is still being formed after the elections in France this month ”.

In relation to the candidacy of Salt Lake City, the IOC is irritated with a federal investigation in the USA about suspected doping by Chinese swimmers who were authorized to compete in the Tokyo Games despite positive drug tests. The World Anti-Doping Agency (Wada) accepted Chinese explanations for the tests and US authorities are now investigating this decision under an anti-conspiracy law approved after the Russian scandal at the Sochi Winter Games!

The IOC president, Thomas Bach, wants to be sure that Wada is the only authority in the USA about Olympic doping cases. Especially with the Olympic Games going to Los Angeles in 2028 and adding a clause to the host city contract requiring organizers to include Spencer Cox – including Spencer Cox – to pressure the closure of federal investigations or risk losing the Olympics.

Cox, who is a Republican and others promised to lobby the president of the USA.

"We agree that if the United States does not support or violate the rules of the World Anti-Doping Agency, they can withdraw the Games from us and the USA", said Cox after the declaration. Even in international Olympic diplomacy, it was a powerful move to force government officials to publicly lobby for the IOC.

After the Utah contingent agreed to this clause in a 83-6 vote in the US Congress, she formally granted the 2034 Olympic Winter Games to Salt Lake in the USA and Washington State.

The only candidate after the IOC gave Utah exclusive rights for negotiation in the past year is a fast-track process. The clause in the contract requires state officials to work with Joe Biden and future US presidents, in addition to participation in members "to ease their concerns" about the federal investigation against drugs; but this allows the Olympic entity to end its agreement if there is a threat from Wada authorities in the USA.

The role of Wada is under scrutiny for accepting a Chinese investigation that declared all 23 swimmers were contaminated with traces of banned cardiac medication. Three Chinese swimmers won medals in the Tokyo Olympic pool. The case is implicated in the case, some are also competing in Paris next week!

The case can be investigated in the USA under federal legislation named after a whistleblower of state doping in the 2014 Sochi Winter Games. The IOC and Wada lobbied against the law, known as the Rodchenko Law, which gives US federal agencies broad jurisdiction to apply worldwide before Los Angeles hosts the 2028 summer games.

"Let's work with our members of Congress", said Cox to voters of Bach and the IOC before the 2034 vote, "let's use all the levers of power to solve these concerns. ”

The city of Salt Lake City hosted the 2002 Olympic Games. This offer was reached
