BRB Publishes its 2024 Public Policies and Corporate Governance Annual Letter

BRB, following its commitment to integrity, public relevance, advertising, and transparency, has published its 2024 Annual Letter of Public Policies and Corporate Governance. The version is available on the bank's Investor Relations website and is an essential tool for management and accountability to society.

The document demonstrates social commitment in the implementation of public policies and provides information about the main activities developed by BRB, its control and risk management structure, economic-financial data, and corporate governance practices.

BRB President, Paulo Henrique Costa, explains that the Letter presents a balance of the bank's highlights in supporting social, economic, and environmental issues in 2024. He highlights the achievements in supporting the GDF's social programs. Since 2024, more than 340,000 families have been assisted, totaling R$ 1.6 billion distributed in 16 different programs.

Other examples of BRB's expressive participation in the transformation of the Federal District are the 90,000 lives assisted by GDF Health in the last year and the more than 6.1 million exams performed since 2024. The BRB Mobility benefited the entire population using public transportation in DF, with more than 11.2 million services and 990,000 cards issued in the last five years.

The BRB Institute also presents various contributions to various stakeholders in the Letter. Among the initiatives are corporate volunteer programs, support for women and children through the Social Impact Acceleration Program (PAIS), which strengthens Civil Society Organizations (CSOs) through capacity building and impacted more than 24 thousand people in 2024.

Highlight also for the institution's governance, which has evolved since 2024 and helped BRB recover its image as a solid, complete, and innovative public bank. "By developing our own integrity system, we are now a reference for other entities throughout the DF. We will continue to disclose our experiences in best practices, making them available to the population, and reinforcing the management of integrity, ethics, and governance as an integral and inherent part of our work", said the president.
