Chaves para jogar caça-níqueis

3bet, for those who may not know, is a play in which a player raises again after a raise has already been made. It's a fearsome weapon in the right hands, but it can also be a dangerous trap for the unwary. Mastering the art of 3betting means knowing when to play it safe and when to take the big risks and reap the rewards.

One of the key benefits of a successful 3bet is its ability to narrow the field, as you so astutely pointed out. When a player makes a 3bet, they're signaling to the table that they're not messing around and are dead serious about their hand. It's a powerful way to control the table and pave the way to victory. By the way, have you heard about Bal bal poker?

Oh, you should give that a try some time! But I digress. As you mentioned, utilizing the 3bet wisely allows us to win more chips, sometimes even without getting to the flop. Pair that with solid hand selection, and suddenly you've become an unstoppable force at the table. That's why we love this game so much!

Using the 3bet strategy effectively is a question of learning and habit. Beginners and low-frequency 3-betters tend to go 0/16 or 3bet preflop raises too light, while the best regs can make it work with abandon because of their high level of skill and table image (over 3 levels). But what's unique about our site is that we don't generate real money profit from our poker forums, tools, and public services, so your opponents don't have an incentive to play the shark scope approach. As a final takeaway, always remember that there's not enough discussion of poker 3bet strategy.

Therefore, take some time today to ask around and study solid examples you can learn from and identify flaws in your opponents' games that lead to costly errors. Keep crushing the tables! See you all in the felt..!

Fiscal de la CPI solicita órdenes de detención contra líderes de Hamás y Netanyahu por crímenes de guerra

El fiscal de la Corte Penal Internacional, Karim Khan, anunció el lunes que había solicitado órdenes de detención contra los dirigentes de Hamás y contra el primer ministro de Israel, Benjamín Netanyahu, por crímenes de guerra y crímenes contra la humanidad en relación con el ataque del 7 de octubre y la guerra en Gaza.

Entre los solicitados por Khan se encuentran Yahya Sinwar, Mohammed Deif e Ismail Haniyeh, de Hamás, así como Netanyahu y el ministro de Defensa israelí, Yoav Gallant.

Si se emiten órdenes de detención, las personas citadas podrían ser detenidas al viajar a uno de los 124 países miembros del tribunal.

Khan afirmó que tiene "motivos razonables para creer" que los líderes de Hamás son responsables de "crímenes de guerra y crímenes contra la humanidad", incluido "el asesinato de cientos de civiles israelíes en ataques perpetrados por Hamás".

Con respecto a Netanyahu y Gallant, el fiscal dijo que cree que los líderes israelíes tienen responsabilidad penal por crímenes de guerra y crímenes contra la humanidad, incluyendo el uso de la inanición como arma de guerra y "dirigir intencionalmente ataques contra una población civil".

La declaración del tribunal no es totalmente una sorpresa. En marzo, Volker Türk, responsable de derechos humanos de las Naciones Unidas, afirmó que las restricciones impuestas por Israel al ingreso de ayuda en Gaza y el modo en que está dirigiendo la guerra podrían equivaler al uso de la inanición como arma.

Funcionarios israelíes dijeron por primera vez a finales de abril que creían que el tribunal estaba preparando la emisión de órdenes de detención contra altos funcionarios del gobierno por cargos relacionados con la guerra.

Israel ha negado ser el causante de la crisis de hambre en Gaza o poner límites a la ayuda humanitaria que entra en el territorio. Afirma que Naciones Unidas y otras organizaciones no han distribuido adecuadamente alimentos y otros productos humanitarios.

La situación alimentaria en Gaza se consideraba estable antes de que comenzara la guerra, pero se ha deteriorado drásticamente desde entonces y la perspectiva de hambruna lleva meses en el panorama.
