The history of bull and bear
The terms bear and bull have been used for many years in the financial and trading markets, and are thought to originally stem from the way in which each animal attacks its opponents. A bull, when on the attack, thrusts its horns up into the air, while a bear will swipe downward.

Bulls and bears: the epic battle - Zumo.tech

A bull market is when stock prices are on the rise and economically sound, while a bear market is when prices are in decline. The origin of these expressions is unclear, but one reason could be that bulls attack by bringing their horns upward, while bears attack by swiping their paws downward.

Where Did the Bull and Bear Market Get Their Names? - Investopedia

Investors who believe prices will rise are known as bulls because of their upbeat attitude toward the market. They can profit by purchasing assets for less money and selling them for more. Bulls gain from price uptrends and positive sentiment in the crypto market.

Bulls make money, bears make money, pigs get slaughtered

Long ago, goods and services were exchanged for other goods and services. Investors who sold bear skins they did not yet own were called bears because they expected a price decline. Bull traders were considered the opposite of bears. They bought assets with the expectation that prices would rise.

Where did the terms bull market and bear market originate?

Bruno Fernandes admits there probably won't be another Cristiano Ronaldo when the former Manchester United sensation eventually calls time on his glittering career.

Ronaldo, 38, scored two goals for Portugal on Friday night as they gunned down Slovakia to qualify for Euro 2024 already.

It took his staggering international tally to 125 goals from 202 caps.

Despite his age,

the five-time Ballon d'Or winner continues to be a threat for club and country. His second coming at Old Trafford might have ended on a sour note, but former United teammate and fellow Portuguese - Fernandes - reckons that record-breaking Ronaldo still has plenty more to offer.

As quoted by PortuGoal after the Slovakia game, United playmaker Fernandes said: "Do I have the notion that I'm playing alongside a history maker? No, I don't have a notion, I have the certainty! We're all aware of it.

"We all understand the force and impact that Ronaldo has, the force and the impact that Ronaldo has had on the future of many of us Portuguese players, the opportunities that he's created for the future generations of players, the way others began to look at Portugal.

"They already had started looking at us with more respect,

but everything that Ronaldo achieved meant our name was more feared, and obviously we are grateful to have lived in this era, because it was a privilege for us to watch

Cristiano play and at the same time I had the chance to play alongside him."

Fernandes

added: "He's done extraordinary things that will probably never be repeated. We hope they are, for the good of football, but I think it's unlikely.

"I hope another

Cristiano Ronaldo appears [for Portugal], but I think it's unlikely and now up to us to enjoy him and enjoy what he can still give us, regardless of the fact they often say;

'Ah, he's not what he used to be'. All players as the years go by have to adapt.

"Cristiano, although different and always adapting, continues to do what he does best, which is score goals."
