The global players union for professional footballers has confirmed two Ukrainian stars have died during Russia's invasion.

FIFPRO revealed on Wednesday 1 Vitalii Sapylo, 21, and Dmytro Martynenko, 25, had been killed in Ukraine.

"Our thoughts are with the families, friends, and teammates 1 of young Ukrainian footballers Vitalii Sapylo and Dmytro Martynenko, football's first reported losses in this war," FIFPRO tweeted. "May they 1 both rest in peace."

Sapylo played for Karpaty Lviv's youth team as a goalkeeper and the club paid tribute to him 1 in a statement that said: "We cherish the eternal memory of this hero."

Sapylo's father Roman reportedly told German publication BILD: 1 "He was such a happy, fun-loving boy. It was an air strike by that damn Putin. He took my child 1 from me.

"He really wanted to fight. First one tank broke down, then the second. But under no circumstances did he 1 want to leave the front."

Martynenko played for Ukrainian second-division side FC Gostomel.

On Wednesday FIFPRO's General Secretary Jonas Baer-Hoffmann spoke to 1 BBC radio about the tragedy.

“We’ve had confirmation from the ground (of their deaths) which is of course incredibly sad,” he 1 said. “We don’t have clear information on how many of our members are really currently involved in the conflict.

“Of course 1 there are still hundreds of Ukrainian players, male and female, in the country so it’s very difficult right now to 1 get an overview how many of them are at what degree of risk.

“Our union on the ground is effectively working 1 out of bunkers and cellars.

“These two players have passed away as part of this military invasion.

“They’re showing how football and 1 sport in general is just an afterthought because they’re just individuals who unfortunately got caught up in this terrible war.”

Meanwhile, 1 the International Biathlon Union (IBU) confirmed 19-year-old professional skier Yevhen Malyshev had been killed in the fighting.

“Above all, the IBU 1 expresses its deepest condolences on the loss of former Ukrainian biathlete Yevhen Malyshev (19), who died this week serving in 1 the Ukrainian military,” the union wrote.

“The Executive Board once again condemns the Russian attacks on Ukraine and the support provided 1 by Belarus.”

Professional athletes are among those Ukrainians staying behind the fight against the Russian 1 invasion. Tennis star Sergiy Stakhovsky, who famously beat Roger Federer at Wimbledon in 2013, has returned to Kyiv to take 1 part in the struggle to repel the Russians.

“I know how to use the gun. If I’ll have to, I’ll have 1 to. I pretty much hope that I won’t have to use the gun,” Stakhovsky told BBC Radio 4’s Today program.

Questioned 1 about the difficulty of leaving his wife Anfisa and children at their home in Hungary, he said: “I’m still not 1 sure how I’ve done it.

“I know that it’s extremely hard on my wife. My kids don’t know that I’m here. 1 They don’t understand war. They’re too little to understand what’s going on.”

Three-weight boxing champion Vasiliy Lomachenko is believed to have 1 joined the fight too. The 34-year-old was photographed wearing military uniform with a rifle across his shoulder in a post 1 on his Facebook page.

World heavyweight champion Oleksandr Usyk, who defeated Anthony Joshua in September, is also said to have left 1 London to take part in the war.

Asked by the BBC to confirm whether Usyk had gone to Ukraine to fight, 1 his promoter Alexander Krassiyuk said “every Ukrainian joined the defence”.

Ukrainian heavyweight icon Vitali Klitschko, the current Mayor of Kyiv, will 1 serve in the war. The 50-year-old’s brother Wladimir has also signed up as a reserve for the territorial forces.

“I am 1 Ukrainian, and I am a fighter,” Wladimir Klitschko said on Monday. “Our strongest force is the will and desire to 1 live in a free country, and we have chosen the direction we want to go.”
