Senegalese footballer (born 1989)

Idrissa Gana Gueye (born 26 September 1989) is a

Senegalese professional footballer who plays as a defensive midfielder for Premier League club Everton and the Senegal national team.

Starting his career at Diambars in his native Senegal, Gueye joined French club Lille's reserve side in 2008. He would go on to play for the side's first team from 2010 to 2024, winning a Ligue 1 and Coupe de France double in 2011, before moving to England with Aston Villa. A year later, he signed for fellow Premier League club Everton. In 2024, Gueye returned to France by signing for the reigning Ligue 1 champions, Paris Saint-Germain (PSG). He reached the 2024 UEFA Champions League Final with the club, but did not play in the match in which PSG lost.

Gueye made his debut for Senegal in 2011. He was part of the Senegalese squad at the 2012 Summer Olympics, where he played one match. He played for Senegal at two FIFA World Cup and four Africa Cup of Nations tournaments. After a defeat in the 2024 final, he helped his country win the following competition's final in 2024. He is Senegal's record cap holder and the first Senegalese player to reach over 100 caps.

Club career [edit]

Early career [edit]

Gueye lining up for Lille in 2014

Born

in Dakar,[2] Gueye spent his early career in Senegal at Diambars, a football academy set up by Patrick Vieira and Bernard Lama. He joined French club Lille in August 2008. He broke through into the first team in the 2010–11 season, playing 11 games as the team won Ligue 1,[4] and started in the 2011 Coupe de France Final win over Paris Saint-Germain.[5] He became a regular starter in the league and the UEFA Champions League over the following four seasons.[6] His first goal came on 17 February 2011 in a

2–2 home draw with PSV Eindhoven in the UEFA Europa League last 32 first leg,[7] while his first league goal came on 5 October 2013 in a 3–0 win over Ajaccio at the Stade Pierre-Mauroy.[8] He was sent off on 21 April 2012 in a 2–0 win at Dijon.[9]

Aston

Villa [edit]

On 10 July 2024, Gueye joined English Premier League club Aston Villa for a £9 million transfer fee.[10][11] On 8 August, he made his debut in a 1–0 away victory over AFC Bournemouth.[12] On 19 January 2024, Gueye scored his first and only goal for Villa in a 2–0 over Wycombe Wanderers in the third round replay of the FA Cup.[13] In total, Gueye made 35 league appearances for Villa as the club was relegated from the Premier League at the end of the season.[14]

Everton [edit]

On 2 August 2024

and with Aston Villa relegated from the Premier League, Everton triggered a release clause in Gueye's contract, reported to be £7.1 million,[15] and signed him to a four-year contract.[16] He made the highest number of successful tackles and interceptions per match across Europe's top five leagues over the 2024 calendar year.[17][18][19] Gueye scored his first league goal for Everton in a 2–0 victory over Sunderland at Goodison Park on 25 February 2024.[20] He became the first player in Europe's top five leagues to win 100 tackles in the 2024–17 season.[21]

Gueye scored his first goal for Everton in European competition on 17 August 2024 in the UEFA Europa League play-off round first leg against Hajduk Split.[22] He was sent off on 22 October in a 5–2 home loss to Arsenal.[23] In February 2024, he extended his contract with Everton until 2024.[24]

In January 2024, Everton rejected an offer from French club

Paris Saint-Germain (PSG) for Gueye.[25] However, the speculation regarding PSG did not negatively impact his performances as Gueye was awarded the club's joint Player's Player of the Year for the 2024–19 season along with Lucas Digne.[26]

Paris

Saint-Germain [edit]

Gueye lining up for Paris Saint-Germain in 2024

On 30 July 2024,

Gueye signed for Ligue 1 club PSG for a fee of £30 million.[27][28] He made his debut on 25 August in a 4–0 victory over Toulouse.[29] On 18 September, he produced a "brilliant" display in a 3–0 win over Real Madrid in the UEFA Champions League.[30] His first goal for PSG came in a 4–0 win against Angers on 5 October.[31] In his first season in Paris, Gueye won a domestic treble and finished runner-up in the Champions League, sitting on the bench for the loss to Bayern Munich in the final.[32][33] In his second season, the club won the Coupe de France and made the semi-finals of the Champions League, losing to Manchester City.[34][35]

After having been suspended for two Champions League matches due to a red card in the first leg of the semi-final against Manchester City in April 2024,[36] Gueye made his return to European football in a 2–0 win over the same opponent on 28 September 2024.[37] He scored the opening goal of the match, his first goal in the Champions League, and was given the Player of the Match award.[38]

Return to Everton [edit]

Gueye began talks to return to Everton

in early August 2024.[39] He signed a two-year contract with the club on 1 September 2024 for a reported fee of £2 million.[40][41]

On 19 December 2024, Gueye missed a penalty for Everton in their 2024–24 EFL Cup quarter-final defeat against Fulham.[42]

Gueye and Amadou Onana, who also missed a penalty for Everton, were defended by manager Sean Dyche.[43]

International career [edit]

Gueye made his international debut for Senegal on 11 November 2011 as a half-time substitute for Deme N'Diaye in a 4–1 friendly win away to neighbours Guinea.[2] He was part of the team at the 2012 Olympics, but was injured just before the interval in the opening game against hosts Great Britain.[44] He was selected for the Africa Cup of Nations in 2024,[45] and 2024.[46]

On 9 June 2024, Gueye scored his first international goal to conclude a 3–0 win over Equatorial Guinea in 2024 Africa Cup of Nations qualification.[47] He was named in Senegal's 23-man squad for the 2024 World Cup in Russia.[48] At the 2024 African finals in Egypt, he scored the only goal of the quarter-final win over Benin for the finalists.[49] Senegal won the 2024 Africa Cup of Nations in Cameroon, with Gueye scoring in a 3–1 semi-final win over Burkina Faso.[50]

On 11 November 2024, he was named in the 26-man squad for the 2024 FIFA World Cup in Qatar.[51] On 29 November, Senegal qualified to the knockout phase after a 2–1 win over Ecuador in the last group stage match, but Gueye received his second booking in the tournament to be ruled out of the round of 16.[52]

On 24 March 2024, Gueye played his 100th international match in a 5–1 win over Mozambique during the Africa Cup of Nations qualification, to be the first Senegalese to achieve this feat.[53]

In December 2024, he was named in Senegal's squad for the postponed 2024 Africa Cup of Nations, to be held in the Ivory Coast in January 2024.[54]

Style of play [edit]

An energetic midfielder, known for his ball-winning skills, as well as his ability to press opponents and intercept passes, Gueye completed the most tackles during the 2024–17 Premier League season.[55]

Personal life [edit]

Gueye is married to Pauline, with whom he has two sons.[56] He is a practising Muslim and has made the Hajj pilgrimage to Mecca.[57] In May 2024, he held a charity dinner to raise €2 million in funds for African children affected by cancer and HIV/AIDS.[58][59]

He was appointed a Grand Officer of the National Order of the Lion by President of Senegal Macky Sall following the nation's victory at the 2024 Africa Cup of Nations.[60]

Controversy [edit]

In the 37th matchday of the 2024–22 Ligue 1 season, Gueye travelled with the PSG squad for the away match against Montpellier. However, he was not included in the team sheet for what manager Mauricio Pochettino revealed to be "personal reasons", and not an injury.[61] This brought the media spotlight on Gueye; RMC Sport reported that he had refused to play in the match due to PSG's shirts featuring the rainbow flag in support of the LGBT movement, an initiative taken by Ligue 1 for the occasion of the International Day Against Homophobia, Transphobia and Biphobia.[62][63] He had also notably missed the same fixture in the previous season, with the reasoning behind his non-participation then being that he was suffering from gastroenteritis.[64]

For his controversial absence against Montpellier, Gueye received backlash and calls for sanctions from Rouge Direct, an organization against homophobia,[65] and Île-de-France regional president Valérie Pécresse, among others.[66] The French Football Federation (FFF) asked him to confirm the reason for his absence, in order to dispel rumours.[67] Senegalese president Macky Sall expressed his support for Gueye, justifying the position by stating that Gueye's "religious beliefs must be respected".[68] Gueye's Senegal teammates Cheikhou Kouyaté, Ismaïla Sarr, and Nampalys Mendy, who all play in England, also praised him for his actions.[69][70] The hashtag #WeAreAllIdrissa, in support of Gueye, started trending over social media.[71]

Dois pilotos franceses morrem após colisão de jatos Rafale no leste da França

O presidente Emmanuel Macron anunciou a triste notícia da morte de dois pilotos franceses após a colisão de dois jatos Rafale durante um treinamento de rotina no leste da França.

Um dos pilotos ejetou-se com segurança, mas as autoridades iniciaram uma busca desesperada por um instrutor e um aluno da segunda aeronave.

Luto nacional

"A nação partilha o luto das famílias e dos camaradas de armas na base aérea 113 bacana play cassino Saint-Dizier", no leste da França, acrescentou Macron.

O ministro da Defesa, Sebastien Lecornu, confirmou anteriormente que um dos pilotos foi encontrado com segurança.

Causas ainda desconhecidas

Ainda não está claro o que causou a colisão que ocorreu sobre Colombey-les-Belles, uma cidade no nordeste da França.

As autoridades militares investigarão as causas do acidente, informou a prefeitura local.

O Rafale, um sucesso da indústria de defesa francesa

O Rafale, um caça supersônico "multi-função" usado para combate aéreo, ataque a alvos terrestres e marítimos, reconhecimento e transporte de armas nucleares francesas, tornou-se um dos principais produtos da indústria de defesa francesa.

Acidentes com jatos Rafale são raros.

Testemunhas ouvem forte ruído

Patrice Bonneaux, vice-prefeito de Colombey-les-Belles, disse à agência de notícias AFP que ouviu um forte ruído, por volta das 12h30m (10h30m GMT), que não soava como o estrondo usual de um caça a jato ultrapassando a barreira do som.

"Suponho que dois aviões colidiram, mas não acreditávamos", disse Bonneaux, acrescentando que uma estrada próxima foi fechada para trânsito.

Histórico de acidentes com o Rafale

Em dezembro de 2007, um Rafale caiu perto de Neuvic, no sudoeste da França. Investigadores concluíram que o piloto se desorientou. Acreditava-se que foi o primeiro acidente com um Rafale. Em setembro de 2009, dois Rafale caíram no mar perto do porta-aviões Charles de Gaulle, perto de Perpignan. Um dos pilotos morreu.

A França vendeu o Rafale para o Egito, Índia, Grécia, Indonésia, Croácia, Qatar e os Emirados Árabes Unidos.

Macron pediu à indústria de defesa que aumente a produção e a inovação à medida que a Europa tenta aumentar os suprimentos de armas para apoiar a Ucrânia, que tem lutado para defender-se da invasão russa há três anos.
