Doja Cat enciende el escenario en Londres: un espectáculo de fuego y pelucas

Doja Cat dazzles with a concert full of fire and wigs in London, where she presents a new look in response to the demand of the public. The artist, known for her frequent image transformation, appears with a long black wig with bangs and rectangular glasses, giving the impression of a sexy secretary with a bad attitude.

Una noche de fuego y pelucas

The live band of Doja Cat is set on platforms covered with extensions, while a giant blonde braid descends from the sky for Doja Cat to caress. Although the spectacle is not as extravagant as her performance at Coachella in California in April, where her dancers looked like Cousin Itt's head in front of La Familia Addams, it is enough to cause an impression.

In 2024, Doja Cat shaved her head and eyebrows live on Instagram, which caused concern among her fans. However, the artist responded with her characteristic style. "They want hair", she seems to say about her performance. "Here is my hair".

Un espectáculo de fuego y agresión

The frequent fire explosions contribute to creating the infernal atmospheres of her latest albums: Escarlata and its extended version, Escarlata 2 Claude, released in April. The cover of the Escarlata tour presents Doja Cat as a succubus, perched on the chest of a sleeping man. Her song Demons is one of the most powerful of the night, with Doja Cat banging the microphone against the floor and the audience, ending the lines of her aggressive rap with aggression and cunning.

"A lot of people who were sleeping say they are being raped", she says, in a style that reminds her much of her idol, the excellent Nicki Minaj. Those who were sleeping could be forgiven. Before Escarlata, Doja Cat set streaming records and won awards for her pop and R&B work, like her number 1 hit of 2024, the disco-lite Say So (with Minaj).

el remix), y el jugueteón Planeta Her (2024); trabajo que Doja Cat ha desestimado recientemente como "una operación de efectivo".

Su actuación de esta noche es casi por completo amarga y procaz, entregada sin disculpas con una serie de contoneos y movimientos de cadera, además de una travesura inusualmente sonriente a través de Say So. En abril, Doja Cat criticó a los padres que llevaban a niños pequeños a sus shows. Hay algunos aquí esta noche que no recibieron la nota y se siente un poco por ellos durante Wet Vagina.

Para una artista tan entretenida, hay barreras para disfrutar sin problemas del trabajo de Doja Cat. A muchos les parece que Dlamini ha estado en una misión para perder fans e...

This controversial, avatar-like vocalist does conventional things surprisingly well. A number of factors were at play: the increasing demands of "stan" culture, where largely female stars, often running their own social media, have become held to unreasonable levels of accountability by fans whose opinions on the artist's output and life become increasingly aggressive; and Doja Cat herself, a digital native with a very chequered online existence, whose attitude to trolls is to throw hunks of flesh at them. Or to out-troll them. "If somebody wants to fight me on the internet," she said in Variety last year, "I will gladly join in, balls to the wall. It's fun for me. I'm a very messy bitch." Tonight's gig actually doubles as something of a charm offensive, however, one in which this controversial, avatar-like vocalist does conventional things surprisingly well. Doja Cat has been an able and fluent rapper for a very long time in internet years: her breakout viral track, Moo! from 2024, was a cow-themed romp that skilfully referenced vintage hip-hop artists such as Wu-Tang Clan, Ludacris and Kelis's Milkshake (2003) while packing in quips about breastfeeding, beef and methane. Get Into It (Yuh) is one of few fun tracks that survive tonight from Planet Her, displaying Dlamini's cuter, more tongue-in-cheek side, complete with a breathless Minaj-aping flow. Paint the Town Red, Scarlet's breakout hit, is the defiant climax, however. "Yeah, bitch, I said what I said," she raps, leaning hard into her devilish persona. "My happiness is all of your misery." For someone who seems to exist entirely online, and to be making dismaying choices there – most recently, Doja Cat was slammed for wearing a T-shirt featuring an internet-infamous rightwing comedian – IRL Doja exudes old-fashioned showbiz skills and presence. Her rap credentials are further burnished by an absence of dancers, as there might be at a pop show: she carries the show largely alone, save for four backing vocalists. As for the band, for all the hair-booted electric guitarist's solos, the drummer outshines him, manning a giant kit with audible muscle. Most shocking of all, perhaps, is not Doja Cat rapping, or doing the splits, or grinding on a hair-covered mic stand. It's when she says those three words – "I love you!" – at the end of Get Into It (Yuh). On the recorded track, her love is addressed to Minaj. But when Doja Cat says it tonight, she is beaming straight at her assembled fans, all smiles.
