American reality television series

Poker Royale is a television series on the Game Show

Network (GSN), which featured No Limit Texas hold 'em Poker. The first series began on December 7, 2004. The eighth and final series, Poker Royale: Young Bloods II, began airing on December 9, 2005. The series host at its conclusion was John Ahlers, with commentary by Robert Williamson III and sideline reporting by Lisa Dergan.

The series [ edit ]

Poker Royale: The WPPA Championship [ edit ]

The first series was based on the championship of the World Poker Players Association. The show was hosted by Kevin Nealon, with commentary by Williamson (Evelyn Ng provided commentary for the first two episodes). Suzanne Freeman provided sideline reporting. A total of 72 players participated and put up the R$5,000 entrance fee.

Unlike later series, this series was done in a tournament-style format where players who had zero chips were eliminated. Also different from other series were that three tables were active during the early episodes, and was later lowered to the top ten players at the main table in center stage.

This was the only series where there was a contest for viewers. During intervals of the program, various poker buzzwords would appear on screen. Viewers would log into GSN's website and input this word for a chance to win up to R$10,000,000 in a poker hand with the winner of the WPPA championship.

In order to win the grand prize, the poker tournament winner had to get a full house or better by choosing 5 cards from a deck at random (each card was sealed in an envelope). James Van Alstyne won the tournament and shared an additional R$30,000 with a member of GSN's website, in addition to the cash received, they each won a year's supply of pizza from Pizza Hut.

Poker Royale: Battle of the Sexes [ edit ]

Poker

Royale: Battle of the Sexes was the second series, hosted by radio personality Tom Leykis and Kennedy. Additional commentary was by Williamson once again, except for preliminary match #6, when Matt Vassgersian covered for him. Suzanne Freeman again returned as sideline reporter.

As opposed to the previous series, this one relied on males vs. females, which also incorporated the current scoring format, where players would be awarded points for their teams, depending on how they finished in that particular episode (one point for finishing sixth place to six points for finishing first). The six players (three each of men and women) who had the highest points played in a grand final with the same rules as above, and the highest team score won the tournament and the 6 teammates split a R$30,000 bonus ($5,000 each) each daily winner also received R$20,000, each finalist received a R$5,000 bonus and the tournament's overall winner won R$40,000. Kathy Liebert won the tournament and a total of R$50,000. Despite losing all 6 preliminary games the women scored the most points at the final table to capture the R$30,000 bonus.

The men were Chris MoneyMaker, Paul Wolfe, Greg Raymer, Amir Vahedi, Layne Flack and Antonio Esfandiari. The women were Kathy Liebert, Jennifer Harman, Evelyn Ng, Karina Jett, Kristy Gazes and Clonie Gowen.

Poker Royale: Comedians vs. Poker Pros [ edit ]

Poker Royale: Comedians vs.

The comedians were Paul Rodriguez, Robert Wuhl, Mark Curry, Tammy Pescatelli, Carol Leifer, and Sue Murphy. They faced off against poker players Phil Laak, Robert Williamson III, Linda Johnson, David Williams, Connie Kim, and Kathy Kolberg. spot through the wild card game played for no money. Phil Laak won the tournament and the R$50,000 grand prize, Kathy Kolberg finished runner-up and received R$10,000.

be divided evenly), each preliminary winner receivedR$5,000, the winning team splitR$50,000, while the overall individual winner wonR$25,000. The James Woods Gang

Poker Royale: Young Bloods II [ edit ]

Poker Royale: Young Bloods II was another special featuring poker players under 30, and aired on December 9, 2005. This special featured the same players and format as the first Young Bloods.

Kenna James once again did commentary instead of Williamson for this special.

Airings [ edit ]

GSN aired new episodes of Poker Royale every Friday evening from 10:00 p.m. to 11:00 p.m. EST, part of their Casino Night block (the block has since moved to Mondays, and does not feature Poker Royale). Episodes of previous seasons are rerun occasionally on GSN.

As of 2006 ,

GSN does not intend to do any more Poker Royale shows. A cash game poker show titled High Stakes Poker premiered on January 16, 2006 on GSN. This series is unrelated to Poker Royale. GSN has since returned its focus exclusively to game shows, and they reverted their on air branding to Game Show Network, so it is unlikely that reruns or a new series of Poker Royale will air on the network in the foreseeable future.
