China y Alemania: cooperación entre startups y PYMES en el futuro

Se espera que las startups de alta tecnología y las pequeñas y medianas empresas (PYMES) alemanas sean los principales participantes en la cooperación futura entre China y Alemania, según un informe publicado en un foro de dos días sobre cooperación e desarrollo industrial sino-alemán que finalizó este martes.

El informe, titulado "Informe de investigación de cooperación industrial de campeones ocultos China-Alemania", estudia la historia y los atributos de los campeones ocultos alemanes, así como las inspiraciones que las empresas chinas podrían aprovechar, especialmente las empresas especializadas y sofisticadas que producen productos nuevos y únicos.

Campeones ocultos: definición y características

Los campeones ocultos se refieren a PYMES con gran éxito, pero menos conocidas, que son líderes globales en términos de cuota de mercado en sus respectivos nichos. Actualmente, Alemania cuenta con alrededor de 500 campeones ocultos.

La especialista jefe del grupo de investigación del informe, Peng Jian, describió las características de los campeones ocultos alemanes: "Foco, largo plazo e innovación son las características de los campeones ocultos alemanes y merecen ser referenciados por las empresas chinas".

Inversión alemana en China: cifras récord

Según un informe publicado por el Instituto Económico Alemán, la inversión directa de Alemania en China alcanzó un récord de 11,9 mil millones de euros en 2024. Durante el mismo período, la inversión alemana en China representó el 10,3% de la inversión total de Alemania en el extranjero - el nivel más alto desde 2014.

Los datos del Ministerio de Comercio de China también muestran que la inversión alemana en China aumentó un 48% en los primeros tres meses de este año.
