Your bookmakers will have various tools available to help you keep your gambling safe and recreational.

Here are a few of 5 the main tools available to you:

Deposit Limit

You can set a limit on the amount of money you can deposit with 5 your bookmaker over a defined period of time. (e.g daily, weekly, monthly).

This ensures that you can't deposit more than you 5 are comfortable with and can afford.

If you try to breach the limit the bookmaker's system will stop you doing so 5 and issue you with a message that you have reached your limit.

You can alter your limits at any time. However, 5 if you wish to increase your deposit limit you will generally need to speak to your bookmaker and there should 5 be a 'cooling-off' period before the limit will be increased. This ensures that your are not exposed to any further 5 risk hastily.

Decreases in limits will take immediate effect.

Loss Limit

This is similar to a deposit limit but asks you to 5 define how much money you are prepared to lose in a defined period.

As with deposit limits, once you have reached 5 your personal 'loss limit' the bookmaker's system will stop you losing any more money in the period.

Also, you can increase 5 your 'loss limit' after a cooling off period and reduce the limit immediately.

Time Out

If you feel you need a total 5 break from your betting for a period of time then you can do this.

Systems will be slightly different for each 5 bookmaker. Generally, you can take a break for any period from one day to one month.

This will mean you can't 5 bet on your account until your required 'betting break' has expired.

If you change your mind during this break period your 5 bookmaker will not let you restart your activity until the original requested period has elapsed.

Manage Your Time

The Session Timer allows 5 you to define the maximum amount of time you wish to access a bookmaker's website or app during a prescribed 5 period of time (usually a day).

Once your time limit has been breached you will receive a message informing you that 5 you can't access the bookmakers facility again until your period of maximum time has been renewed (e.g. the next day).

Reality 5 Checks

These checks are designed to remind you at periodic intervals how long your current session with the bookmaker has been. 5 Maybe you have been on the site much longer than you expected to be and slightly lost track of time 5 and your period of gambling.

So, if you have asked to be sent a session reality check every 30 minutes, then 5 you will receive a pop up message telling you when 30 minutes have elapsed. At this point you can either 5 stop your session or consciously consent by agreeing to continue the session. This facility puts you in control of the 5 time you spend on an individual session on a bookmaker's betting site.

Self-exclude

If you reach a decision that you want to 5 stop gambling with a bookmaker then you can 'self-exclude' for a defined period of time.

You will be able to define 5 the period of time you wish to be excluded from all gambling activity. This could be weeks, months, years or 5 a permanent exclusion.

Whichever period you choose, your bookmaker will not allow you to use their betting facilities at all during 5 your period of self-exclusion.
