Liverpool in the Champions League semi-finals tonight (8pm kickoff BST), live online and on TV around the world.

If all goes well, the Reds have five games left to play this season, and if all goes well, at the end of those five games Jordan Henderson will have lifted two trophies.

It will prove a significant challenge if that is to be the case, though, not least due to tonight's opposition, in the form of La Liga champions Barca.

Ernesto Valverde's side celebrated silverware after a 1-0 win over Levante on Saturday, and can now set their sights on Champions League glory having already wrapped up their domestic pursuit.

Speaking before the game, Jurgen Klopp acknowledged that Liverpool "won't be perfect" at the Nou Camp, but they will be required to be as close as they can be to take an advantage back to Anfield.

Will this be another famous European night for the Reds in Catalonia?
