Brazilian footballer and commentator

José Ferreira Neto (born 9 September 1966), commonly known as Craque Neto or simply Neto, is a Brazilian former professional footballer and current sports broadcaster.

After retiring from the game he has been active in the media.

He's been working for Bandeirantes since 1999, and currently presents Os Donos da Bola.

An attacking midfielder, he played 470 games and scored 184 goals in his entire career.

Biography [edit]

Neto was born in Santo Antônio de Posse, a small town near Campinas, in the State of São Paulo.

Club career [edit]

Neto began his football career very early in life, playing for Campinas-based team Guarani at youth level, before being promoted to the senior side.

In the mid-1980s he also played for Bangu (in Rio de Janeiro) and São Paulo, before returning to Guarani once again.

In 1988, he brought more attention upon himself by scoring a goal from a bicycle-kick in the São Paulo State Championship finals against Corinthians.

In 1989 Neto played for Palmeiras and was subsequently transferred to Corinthians, where he remained for a good part of his career, wearing club's the number 10 shirt, and becoming an idol with the club's fans in the beginning of the nineties.

With his precise passing game and strong personality, he was the key player during the 1990 National Championship in Brazil, when Corinthians won the finals against São Paulo.

After almost five years and 114 goals for Corinthians, his time with the club came to a close.

However, even today Neto is remembered as one of the most iconic players in the club's history.

After his spell with Corinthians, he played for many other clubs, in Brazil (Araçatuba, Atlético Mineiro, Matsubara, Santos) and abroad (Millonarios of Colombia).

He is one of the few players to have played for all four major teams in the state of São Paulo.

Neto's career was always plagued by weight problems and disagreements with referees and club managers, due to his strong character.

His most famous episode was when he spat in referee José Aparecido de Oliveira's face, earning himself a 4-month suspension from the games.

Neto says this is the only regrettable thing he did in his career.[1]

Neto retired from professional football at the end of the nineties.

International career [edit]

Neto was a member of the Brazilian under-23 team that won a bronze medal at the 1983 Pan American Games.

Following his performances in the São Paulo State Championship throughout the season, in 1988, Neto was named to the Brazil national team that went to Seoul to play in the Summer Olympic Games.

In the final against the Soviet Union, Neto helped set up Romário's opening goal of the match from a corner-kick, however, the Soviets came from behind to defeat Brazil 2–1 in extra-time to capture the gold medal.

Neto was later also included in the Brazilian squad that finished second in the 1991 Copa América in Chile; under manager Falcão, he was named the team's captain, and wore the number 10 shirt throughout the tournament.

He scored his only goal of the competition from a penalty in a 2–1 win over Bolivia on 9 July, in the first round group stage.

[2][3] In total, he made 26 appearances for Brazil at international level between 1988 and 1993, scoring 7 goals; 9 of his appearances came with the Olympic youth side, and 16 with the senior team, including one appearance and one goal in an unofficial friendly.

Style of play [edit]

A set-piece specialist, in Brazil Neto is commonly considered to be one of the greatest free kick takers ever,[4][5] and one of the best Brazilian players of the early 1990s.

[5] A versatile midfielder, he was capable of playing in several offensive midfield positions, but was usually deployed as an attacking midfielder behind the forwards, due to his technique, range of passing, and excellent playmaking skills; he was also occasionally used as a second striker or as a winger.

In addition to being known for his accuracy from dead ball situations, he was also noted for his precise long passing, and his ability to act as a leader for his teammates on the field.

After the conclusion of his footballing career, Neto briefly served as the manager of Guarani.

He later became a commentator and sports pundit for TV Bandeirantes.

Neto's simple way of speaking, and his blunt, "ogre-like" behavior have made him a famous broadcaster in Brazil.

[6] Working alongside names such as José Luiz Datena and Milton Neves, Neto has, however, clashed against fellow sports journalists such as Tiago Leifert and various footballers.[7]

Personal life [edit]

The son of a former military policeman, Neto is a father of two children.

After his retirement from professional football, Neto underwent a gastric bypass surgery to help with his excess weight.

The surgery was a success, and the footballer, who was once plagued by weight problems, has since ran in marathons.[8]

Steve Clarke's Scotland: entre la lealtad y la falta de talento emergente

Si el régimen de Steve Clarke en Escocia va a la spiral más allá del punto de no retorno, lo hará en términos del propio manager. Siete de los jugadores que comenzaron la ahora tristemente célebre derrota ante Hungría – el rendimiento ofendió a los aficionados escoceses, no el resultado – comenzaron de la misma manera cuando Polonia visitó Hampden Park en los negocios de la Liga de Naciones.

Los aficionados que quieren que Clarke lo desgarre y comience de nuevo ignoran dos hechos centrales. El manager está comprensiblemente leal a un grupo de jugadores que generalmente le han servido bien. También no hay un lote de talento fresco esperando en las alas, un asunto que se volverá perfectamente obvio para el sucesor eventual de Clarke.

La falta de desarrollo de jugadores en el fútbol escocés

El fútbol escocés continúa ignorando vergonzosamente su incapacidad para producir y desarrollar jugadores de primera equipo que asistirán adecuadamente al equipo nacional para que crezca.

Clarke obtuvo el máximo de lo que estaba disponible para él durante mucho tiempo; simplemente puede ser el caso de que su equipo de Escocia haya alcanzado su punto máximo en algún lugar del camino hacia la Eurocopa 2024. Cuando la suerte está echada, la suerte está echada; ocho minutos de tiempo escocés contra los polacos fueron en gran parte debido al equipo de asistencia de video arbitral defectuoso.

Ante este telón de fondo sombrío, es lógico que el Ejército de Tartán se aferre a brotes verdes.

Doak impresionó desde el banquillo en la derrota dolorosa, la velocidad y el propósito del adolescente no sorprendieron a nadie que haya visto su juego en el nivel juvenil.

La combinación de juego de Doak con Anthony Ralston fue de claro beneficio para el lateral derecho del Celtic, mucho (y injustamente) maldecido.

Doak tiene un fuerte caso para comenzar cuando Escocia se enfrente a Portugal en Lisboa el domingo, pero debe haber apreciación de dónde está su carrera.

El adolescente de 18 años sigue subexpuesto al fútbol de primer equipo. Un préstamo al Middlesbrough no puede ser el final del comienzo de sus aspiraciones de primer equipo en el Liverpool.

Arne Slot claramente piensa que Doak necesita desarrollarse considerablemente antes de que pueda alcanzar el estado en el que muchos en Escocia parecen creer que ya está.

Ryan Gauld, una vez famoso como "Mini Messi", conoce todo sobre eso.

Gauld ha sido reclutado nuevamente en el escuadrón de Escocia a la edad de 28.

Gauld, quien dejó a Dundee United por Sporting a los 18 años, puede disfrutar de un regreso a la capital portuguesa.

Las opciones para reemplazar a Lyndon Dykes en el centro delantero son Lawrence Shankland, quien ha sido horrible para Hearts esta temporada, y el sin pruebas Tommy Conway.

Doak y Gauld son los dos jugadores ofensivos que no solo tienen una causa para ser dados una oportunidad, sino que también excitarían a una base de seguidores abatidos.
