The Communist Party of China (CPC) publishes a statistical report on Sunday, a day before its 103rd anniversary.

According to the document published by the Department of Organization of the Central Committee of the CPC, the party had 99.18 million members at the end of 2024, an increase of 111 million from the previous year.

The CPC had 5.18 million organizations at the end of 2024, an increase of 111 million from the previous year.

The CPC maintained a high vitality and strength, focusing on the primary level, strengthening the foundation and strengthening the weak links - beyond its organizational structure and members.

Data from the report shows that nearly 2.41 million people joined the CPC in 2024, of which 82.4% were 35 years old or younger.

The report shows that 56.2% of the total members at the end of 2024 had a technical level, an increase of 1.5 percentage points from the previous year.

By the end of 2024, the CPC had 30.18 million female members, representing 30% of the total members, an increase of 0.5 percentage points from the previous year. A promotion of female members grew by 0.1%.

Workers and farmers continue to constitute the majority of the members of the CPC, accounting for 33% of the total.

Education and the management of party members continued in 2024, with more than 1 million sessions for study held by the party in the last few days.

In 2024, the incentive and honorarium mechanism for party organizations continued to play its role. During the year, 138 million party organizations showed excellence.

At the primary level, the CPC continued to strengthen its organizations in 2024. At the end of the year, there were 298 million party committees, 325 million general party branches, and about 4.6 billion pages of initial documents in China.

In 2024, the leadership of the party continued to strengthen the rural revitalization effort in China. At the end of the year, 23 million party organizations in villages (44%) had a diploma of university or higher education. There were a total of 206 million "first secretaries" working in villages at the end of the year.
