Ex-leader republican urges Trump to stop questioning size of Harris rallies and focus on political and registration

Kevin McCarthy, ex-leader republican of the House of Representatives, urged Donald Trump to stop questioning the size of Harris rallies and focus on political and registration.

"You need to stop this personality contest", McCarthy said in an interview with Fox News on August 23. "Stop questioning the size of your rallies and start questioning her political and registration, when it comes to: what she did as general prosecutor sportsbet betting relationship to crime? ... What she did when she was supposed to guard the border as czar?"

This happened just a day after the ex-president of the USA and current presidential republican candidate falsely accused Harris, the presidential democratic candidate, of using artificial intelligence to create a {img} that shows large rallies of sportsbet betting supporters sportsbet betting their start in the week past sportsbet betting Detroit, Michigan.

On Sunday, Trump shared a {img} of the large rally for Harris with his millions of followers on Truth Social and claimed that the image of the rally event for Harris was false.

"Look, we caught her with a false rally", wrote Trump. "Nobody was there!"

In another post on Sunday, he called Harris a "LIES" and said that "there was nobody on the plane, and she 'AI'ed it, and showed a supposedly massive rally of followers, BUT THEY DON'T EXIST!"

{sp} and {img} of the event sportsbet betting Detroit in the week past show a large rally present, and shortly after Trump accused Harris of fabricating the rally, sportsbet betting campaign responded to the allegations and denied that the {img} was manipulated.

The {img} sportsbet betting question "is a {img} of a rally of 15,000 people for Harris-Walz sportsbet betting Michigan", said the campaign for Harris, adding: "Trump has not run a sportsbet betting state swing sportsbet betting more than a week... Low energy?"

David Plouffe, senior advisor to the Harris campaign, also responded to the allegations of Trump and said: "These are not internet rumors of deep conspiracies. The author could have the nuclear codes and be responsible for decisions that will affect us for decades."
