I think I took an age on the flop to decide what to do as I didnt want to lose the whale out of the hand but I figured if he has a piece of it he comes along anyway and there was a good chance you had Ax that may continue. Im not keen on your turn raise and I hinely expected to be splitting the pot but it forces me to fold any bluffs that I have or semi bluffs although the last thing you wanted was a K or Q hitting which was partly my thinking raising the flop. But it is a cooler and probably not worth thinking about too much.

2nd hand I think the flop is a fold but its not an easy fold to make in game by any means but you block one of the flush draws and there are so many hands he could have at this point that could beat TPTK on this board its one that we just have to sigh fold unless villain is a huge whale or something.

3rd hand just fold to the 3bet or 4bet. Calling with a dominated ace out of position just going to be so tough to play. A5s defo in my shove pre 4bet range. As played I could see me check/shoving the flop if I think he could have 3bet a little light but I would fold to the turn bet.

Looks like you get a little bit of boredom tilt that I get when I play long sessions and get a bit card dead and try to make things happen. It never works out well for me. Good luck.
