Janja Garnbret: a demonstration of supreme mental strength in climbing at the Olympics

Janja Garnbret, at 25 years old, is considered 5 the greatest competition climber of all time, with a level of ruthlessness comparable to that of Simone Biles. After successfully 5 managing the pressure to win gold in Tokyo, she was heavily favored to repeat the feat in Paris.

However, during the 5 final round of the bouldering section, Garnbret experienced a setback. While attempting to scale the last boulder, she caught her 5 finger between two holds, causing her pain. Angry and tearful, she left the stage. But she returned two hours later 5 for the lead event, where she outperformed Brooke Raboutou of the United States to secure her second Olympic gold.

Garnbret demonstrated 5 supreme mental strength, stating that she was scared she had fractured something but was determined to climb the lead route. 5 She stated, "I just kept telling myself: 'Just like in training, do it like in training, and everything will be 5 all right.' And I pulled it off."

Climbing at the Olympics

Climbing has established itself as an excellent addition to the Games. 5 While the specifics of the scoring system can be complicated, the struggles of certain competitors provide context for how difficult 5 certain holds and routes are. The sight of exceptional climbers breaking new ground is tense and thrilling.

Ai Mori, a prodigious 5 20-year-old lead specialist from Japan, had struggled in the bouldering round but produced a scene-stealing effort on the lead wall, 5 placing one hand on the very top hold before falling. She received a loud standing ovation and finished in fourth 5 place.

The Future of Climbing at the Olympics

The question is whether climbing will be allowed to showcase its full array of 5 competitions. In Tokyo, the sport had one event for men and women, and the consensus among climbers is that they 5 would like the sport to have separate medals for boulder, lead, combined, and speed climbing in Los Angeles 2028.

Janja Garnbret's 5 Legacy

Regardless of the rules, the legend of Garnbret continues to grow. She boasts two Olympic golds in addition to her 5 eight world championship titles, two silver medals, and 45 golds at World Cup events. Her success is inspiring to other 5 climbers, and she will continue to maintain her edge as the target on her back only gets bigger.
