Real Madrid's Eder Militao Returns to Action After 7 Months Out Due to Injury Madrid, Spain - Eder Militao, a Brazilian defender for Real Madrid, has returned to the field after a

7-month absence due to a serious knee injury. Militao entered the game in the 46th minute of the second half against Athletic Bilbao, receiving applause from the fans for every touch of the ball. Militao's return was significant not only because of his time away from the game but also because he was returning against the same team that he sustained the injury against in the first place. "It was a special moment for me to be back in the same stadium where I got injured," Militao said in an interview with RMTV.

The Brazilian defender's comeback was brief, playing only three minutes, but he is expected to feature more prominently in upcoming games. Ancelotti is relying on Militao for the upcoming Champions League match against Manchester City. The first leg will be played on April 9 at Santiago Bernabeu.

Militao's return was a bright spot in an otherwise disappointing game for Real Madrid, who were held to a 1-1 draw by Athletic Bilbao. The team's performance has been inconsistent lately, and they are now 16 points behind league leaders Barcelona.

Real Madrid's next match is against Manchester City in the Champions League, and Ancelotti is confident that Militao will play a key role in the team's success. Despite the team's recent struggles, Militao's return is a positive development for Real Madrid, and fans are hopeful that he can help turn their fortunes around.
